NOTICES:

TEAM CHURCHES OPENING TIMES & SERVICES: Please visit church websites and Facebook pages for up-to-date information.

HELP REQUIRED: As we begin to open up the church we will need help with cleaning after every service, queue management etc. We especially need sides people at 8am and baptism services. Any sides people, or others, who are willing to help please contact Lindsay at the office or on her mobile 07885528187.

HONEY FOR SALE: The bees in All Saints' Apiary have been thriving during 'lockdown' and have produced a bumper spring harvest. If you want to buy some of their honey, please contact Margaret Wallace either by 'phone 07983 989406 or by email margaret.wallace3@icloud.com. The price is £3.50 for an 8oz jar (the same as last year). There is a limit of 2 jars per person. Margaret will then arrange collection or delivery. Payment, placed in an envelope, either by cheque, payable to The Bee Team or in cash should be made on collection / delivery.

BIKE 'N HIKE: GOOD NEWS! Canon Malcolm informs me that this will operate this year on Saturday 12 September. Government Guidelines MUST be followed but ANY form of transport can be used. It will obviously be different this time and details will follow later. Please note that you can include 8 churches and chapels in Leighton Linlade alone over a distance of less than 3km (2miles). So please plan to support this important charity, which has given such strong support to our church during the long period of restoration. Details from Brian 01525 382 404.

JARS OF HOPE: Those returning to church are welcome to leave their jars on the sidesman's table. If you are not yet coming to the building but would like your jar collected, please contact James Legg 01525 379427.
