

How to get YouTube working at home.

On your Computer

You will need:

a computer and internet connection

The first time set-up

Google “All Saints Leighton Buzzard YouTube” & click

When they are started, live streams will appear at the top of this page.

If you can bookmark this page to find it again, but if not, don't worry.

To make life easier, click the subscribe button. You will be asked to make an account that will remember what you want to watch.

On Sundays

Search or click on your bookmark

On your Phone or Tablet

a phone or tablet, the YouTube App and an internet connection

Search YouTube App for “All Saints Leighton Buzzard” or point your camera at

To make life easier, click the subscribe button, and the little bell.

This will send you a notification on your phone every time we go live.

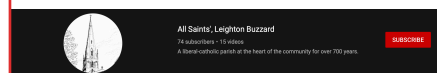

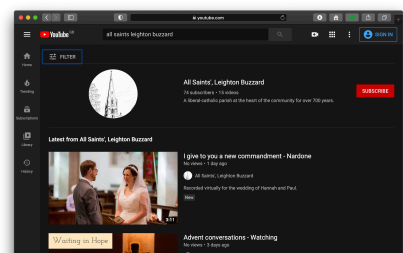

Subscriptions

Click on the notification, or visit your subscriptions.

On your Telly

a smart-TV and internet connection

Open and sign into your TVs YouTube. Search for “All Saints Leighton Buzzard”

To make life easier, click the subscribe button, and the little bell.

If your TV is on, this will alert you whenever we go live.

Subscriptions

Choose your subscriptions.

Technology is complex, so there's no one “right” way to do things... if it works, it works.